Art Piece Details

Applicants will be able to submit one original art piece of their choice from the list below that fulfills the prompt: Create one art piece that exemplifies the impact of alcohol and/or marijuana on youth AND what is possible when youth do not use alcohol and marijuana.

- Physical Art (painting, drawing, sculpture, or photography)
 - The original piece plus a photo/scan of the piece must be submitted.
- Performance Art (video of a rap, song, story, poem, skit or interview)
 - Must be submitted as a 2-5 minute-long video AND in written form (such as a script). Videos must be submitted via usb flash drive in MP4 format.

Informative Essay Details

Applicants must also submit one essay (500-1,000 words) that addresses all four of the following points:

1. What bothers you about underage alcohol and/or marijuana use?
2. How does underage alcohol and/or marijuana use affect your community and environment in Sacramento County?
3. In what ways does your art piece represent prevention of underage alcohol and/or marijuana use?
4. You must demonstrate your understanding for why preventing youth alcohol and/or marijuana is important. We have provided some educational materials (included in the additional documents section of our website) but encourage you to seek out credible sources and do your own research.

Note: No specific essay or citation format is asked for or will be used to review submitted essays. If applicant decides to provide facts from a credible source of their finding, please include source information as a footnote.

Submission Guidelines

- All work must be original. This includes not using recording samples from other artists.
- No profanity, sexual or violent language in any art piece submission.
- No use of alcohol, marijuana, or other drugs in any art piece submission.
- If music is being used, only music that is created by applicant can be used.
- Anyone who is featured in a video or audio recording must sign a waiver.
