Art Piece

Applicants will be able to submit one original art piece of their choice from the list below that fulfills the prompt: Create one art piece that exemplifies what a healthy community looks like when youth are not affected by alcohol and/or marijuana.

1. Spoken Word (rap, song, or poem)
 - Must be submitted as a 2-3-minute-long audio recording and in written form.
2. Physical Art (painting, drawing, sculpture, or photography)
 - Must be submitted with title.
3. Public Service Announcement
 - Must be submitted as a 2-3-minute-long video.

Informative Essay

Applicants must also submit one essay (500-1,000 words) that addresses all four of the following points:

1. What bothers you about underage alcohol and/or marijuana use?
2. How does underage alcohol and/or marijuana use affect your community and environment in Sacramento County?
3. In what ways does your art piece represent underage alcohol and/or marijuana use prevention?
4. You must include at least one fact-based statement from the educational material (included in the additional documents section or from a credible source of your own finding) about alcohol and/or marijuana that demonstrates your understanding for why prevention is important for youth.

Note: No specific essay or citation format is asked for or will be used to review submitted essays. If applicant decides to provide facts from a credible source of their finding, please include source information as a footnote.

Submission Guidelines

- All work must be original.
- No profanity or sexual and violent language in any art piece submission.
- No use of alcohol, marijuana, or other drugs in any art piece submission.
- If music is being used, only music that is created by applicant can be used.
- Anyone who is featured in a video or audio recording must sign a waiver.
